

PAULINE
LEE
DIRECTOR

---

Pauline Ng Lee is a community activist, organizer and volunteer in the Asian and greater Las Vegas community. Born and raised in Southern California, Pauline received her bachelors of accounting degree from the University of Southern California and her juris doctorate degree from Duke University School of Law in 1989.

In 1997, Pauline and her family moved to Las Vegas where she joined the law firm of Hale Lane Peek Dennison & Howard, now known as Holland & Hart LLP, and was elected shareholder in 2000. In 1999, Pauline co-founded the Asian Bar Association of Las Vegas and in 2003, the National Asian Pacific Bar Association named her a “Best Lawyer Under 40.” The following year, In Business Las Vegas named her a “Rising Star.”

Pauline currently serves on the Board of Trustees for the Nevada School of the Arts, a community music conservatory. She is also President of the Nevada Republican Mens Club, which educates its members on current civic policies and promotes sound, honest and conservative values in our government. With her teenage children, Pauline enjoys working community service hours with National Charity League and Young Mens Service League. She currently serves as the Treasurer for the Las Vegas Chapter of Young Men’s Service League. As an advocate for children & education, Pauline serves on the Advisory Board of the Asian Community Development Council where she is the founding organizer of its Annual College Readiness Bootcamp, which provides free college counseling for teens of diverse backgrounds.