

HONORABLE
ROBERT LIST
VICE PRESIDENT

Former Governor Robert List primarily focuses on public policy and government relations for corporate clients on the federal, state and local level, with a particular emphasis on energy and natural resources.

Governor List served as the 24th Governor of Nevada from 1979 to 1983. Prior to being elected Governor, Mr. List served as district attorney of Carson City and for eight years as Attorney General of Nevada. He was Chairman of both the Western Governors Association and the Conference of Western Attorney General. Robert List serves on several boards of directors including Keystone Corporation and Nevada Taxpayers Association. In 2001, he served on the President George W. Bush Department of the Interior transition team. He also served on the finance committees for the Bush/Cheney 2000 and 2004 campaigns. Mr. List is the Republican National Committeeman for Nevada and Chairman of the RNC Budget Committee. He also is an active volunteer in Boy Scouts of America.

Governor List received his B.S. from Utah State University, and his Juris Doctor and Doctor of Law degrees from Hastings College of Law and the University of California.
